

Township of Brimfield, Ohio

This progressive Northeast Ohio community is located in central Portage County 12 miles east of downtown Akron on the Interstate 76 corridor. Brimfield Township, population 7,963, serves as the southern gateway to Kent State University. Over 1.5 million people live within 25 miles.

Brimfield is within one hour's drive of the major metropolitan areas of Northeast Ohio: Cleveland, Akron, Canton, Youngstown, and Warren.

Brimfield Township is located in the Southwest quadrant of Portage County, Ohio. It is bordered by the city of Kent to the north, Rootstown Township to the east, Suffield Township to the south, and by the city of Tallmadge in Summit County to the west. The township has an area of twenty-two and one half square miles.

The Township has access to an excellent transportation system with two interstate highway exchanges on I-76 located within the township, State Route 43 traversing in a north/south direction and State Route 261 located just north of the Township. The Township also contains a reasonably developed network of Local Township and county roads.

On a larger regional perspective, Brimfield is within one day's drive of other major urban centers such as Cincinnati, Columbus, Toledo, Pittsburgh, Detroit, Chicago, and Toronto, Canada.

The transportation access, a key asset in Brimfield Township, allows it to have advantages of accessibility to diverse educational and cultural centers, large labor pools, large product markets, and allows its residents to enjoy diversity in both rural and urban landscapes, all factors contributing to the quality of life in Brimfield Township.

Brimfield Township has 653 acres of Industrial Zoned land. All of the industrial area is located in a Rural Enterprise Zone and the Township and Portage County may offer tax incentives to companies that agree to various standards for employment, payroll, growth and stability. Industry located within the district can be categorized as basically environmentally clean and relate positively to surrounding areas.

There are approximately 2,700 dwellings in the Township with the potential for more than 1,800 additional dwellings in the near future.

The average family size is 2.9 persons with an average tax adjusted family income of $ 33,636.00 per year. [CY2000]

The Field Local School District serves both Brimfield Township and Suffield Township and has an enrollment for the 2003 school year of 2,315 students, an increase of approximately 33 students over the past two years.

The City of Akron's Mogadore Reservoir (887 acres) provides fishing and boating opportunities in the southern section of the township.
